1. Public Interest News Gathering Program: Grant opportunity processes

1.1 Introduction

These guidelines contain information for the Public Interest News Gathering Program (the Program).

You must read this document before applying for a grant.

This document sets out:

- the purpose of the grant opportunity
- the eligibility criteria
- how grant applications are considered and selected
- how grantees will be monitored and evaluated
- responsibilities and expectations in relation to the opportunity.

Key terms used in these guidelines, including terms used to refer to legislation, are explained where they appear or are defined in the Glossary.

The Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Communications (the Department / We) is responsible for administering this grant opportunity.

Should the guidelines be inconsistent with any applicable Act, the relevant Act will prevail.

2. About the grant program

The Australian Government has announced a total of $50 million (GST exclusive) in grants to support the provision of public interest journalism in regional Australia.

The objective of the Program is to support regional broadcasters and publishers to maintain or increase their production and distribution of public interest journalism in regional Australia during the COVID-19 pandemic phase.

This Program implements the Government's response to the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission's (ACCC) Digital Platforms Inquiry by replacing the remaining Regional and Small Publishers Jobs and Innovation Package.

Adding to the strong case for support already made by the ACCC is the increasing economic disruption resulting from the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. The enhanced program will provide direct support for the continued provision of local and regional journalism, which has never been more important than in recent times when communities across Australia need access to trusted sources of news and information.

The Program will meet its objective by enabling regional television and radio broadcasters, and regional publishers, to continue to provide public interest journalism to regional and remote communities across Australia during the COVID-19 pandemic.

We administer the program according to the Commonwealth Grants Rules and Guidelines \(CGRGs\)¹.

3. Grant amount and grant period

3.1 Grants available

There is a total of $50 million (GST exclusive) available under this Grant Opportunity.

Funding for this Grant Opportunity will be allocated across three streams:

- Stream 1: Regional commercial television, including their online services, which produce and broadcast public interest journalism in regional markets, to be apportioned using a grant funding allocation formula based on their proportion of annual revenue compared to the total combined revenue of eligible Stream 1 applicants.
- Stream 2: Regional commercial radio, including their online services, which produce and broadcast public interest journalism in regional markets, to be apportioned using a grant funding allocation formula based on their proportion of annual revenue compared to the total combined revenue of eligible Stream 2 applicants.
- Stream 3: Regional publishers, which produce and publish public interest journalism in regional markets, to be apportioned using a grant funding allocation formula based on their proportion of annual revenue compared to the total combined revenue of eligible Stream 3 applicants. Grants in Stream 3 will have a minimum grant amount of $10,000 (exc GST).

There is no maximum grant amount per grantee but grants cannot exceed the amount of available funds. Each applicant may lodge only one application for this Grant Opportunity but can apply for funding through more than one stream.

The Program is a separate program to the Regional and Small Publishers Innovation Fund (2020 Round), which is being administered by the Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA). Regional publishers are able to apply for funding under both programs. In addition, publishers and content service providers who applied for grants in the previous rounds of the Regional and Small Publishers Innovation Fund (including applicants who were awarded grants under those rounds) are also permitted to apply for this Grant Opportunity.

This Grant Opportunity will be open for 3 weeks from Thursday, 7 May 2020 until 5:00 pm AEST Friday, 29 May 2020.

Grants will have a duration not exceeding 12 months (commencing from the execution of each applicable grant agreement).

3.2 Nominal grant allocation - Funding allocation formula

Funding will be nominally allocated based on an applicant's certified revenue for the 2018-19 financial year, as a proportion of the total revenue of all eligible applicants for a particular stream.

For each stream:

$$\text{Nominal grant allocation} = \frac{\text{Applicant's certified financial revenue}}{\text{Total applicant certified financial revenue}} \times \text{Stream funding pool}$$

Once all applications have been received and screened for eligibility, we will determine the size of each stream funding pool for the purposes of the nominal grant funding allocation formula, taking into consideration factors including the total number of applications received, and the contribution of each sector of applicant to public interest journalism in regional areas. Contribution will be determined by the Department, which will include an assessment of the costs and the level of public interest journalism produced and distributed in regional areas.

3.3 Moderation

We will also have the discretion to adjust down nominal grant allocations by up to 10% of the nominal grant funding determined under the funding allocation formula. Moderation may occur to better support geographical distribution of funds, for example between States and Territories. There is no limit on how much a nominal grant allocation can be adjusted upwards for these purposes.

3.4 Final grant allocation

Subject to execution of a grant funding agreement successful applicants will receive a final grant allocation. The final grant allocation is the nominal grant allocation, adjusted for any moderation as per 3.3 above.

4. Eligibility criteria

We cannot consider your application if it does not satisfy all the eligibility criteria.

4.1 Who is eligible to apply for a grant?

To be eligible to apply for a grant under this Opportunity you must:

- have an Australian Business Number (ABN) (the ABN number must be supplied with the application)
- be registered for the purposes of GST
- not be a foreign controlled Australian entity (as defined in the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997)
- not currently be insolvent
- be a Regional Television Broadcaster or Regional Radio Broadcaster, or Regional Publisher

- demonstrate that you provide public interest journalism to local communities. This should include the production and distribution of local news.
- not be formally affiliated with a political party, union, financial institution, Non-Government Organisation or policy lobby group where that affiliation would influence, or might be seen to influence, the content produced by the applicant.

A Regional Television Broadcaster is a holder of a regional commercial television broadcasting licence as defined in section 61CU of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (the BSA).

A Regional Radio Broadcaster is a holder of a regional commercial radio broadcasting licence as defined in section 61CA of the BSA.

A Regional Publisher is a provider where:

- their primary operations are located in a regional area, and
- their news and journalistic output is targeted to readers and audiences in one or more regional areas.

‘Regional area’ means a radio broadcast licence area that is not a metropolitan licence area. ‘Metropolitan licence area’ means a metropolitan licence area as defined in section 61CA of the BSA.

Applicants will be required to nominate for funding streams outlined below:

- Stream funding pool 1: Regional Television Broadcasters
- Stream funding pool 2: Regional Radio Broadcasters
- Stream funding pool 3: Regional Publishers

Applicants can apply for funding through more than one stream using the one application.

Organisations that operate in both metropolitan and regional areas are eligible to apply for funding, however if successful, funding will only be provided for their regional operations. These organisations will need to provide detailed financial evidence demonstrating the proportion of their revenue attributed to regional markets.

Applicants that operate across numerous regional markets are only required to submit one application. Similarly, applicants that are controlled by a metropolitan or international corporation are only required to submit one application.

5. What the grant money can be used for

5.1 Eligible grant activities

Grants awarded under this Opportunity are intended to fund a broad range of activities that relate to the applicant’s production and distribution of public interest journalism in support of the objective and outcomes of the Program as outlined in section 2 of the guidelines. In particular to maintain or increase their production and distribution of public interest journalism in regional Australia during the grant period.

5.2 Eligible expenditure

Eligible expenditure must primarily be for the applicant's production and distribution of public interest news journalism during the Grant period and without limitation, includes:

- purchase or lease of assets and equipment
- acquisition of relevant content, intellectual property or other rights
- the costs of acquiring technology to assist with production or distribution of content
- salaries for employees that are directly connected to the production of public interest journalism or to the generation of revenue to fund the production of public interest journalism
- costs to assist journalists with content production and distribution
- costs of staff training
- office and travel costs related to public interest journalism
- other costs that directly support the production and distribution of public interest journalism.

5.3 What the grant money cannot be used for

There are several categories of expenses that are not appropriate for funding through a grant made under the Program. These are expenses that are unlikely to align with, or further the achievement of, the objective and outcomes of the Program (see section 2 of these Guidelines).

The following non-exhaustive list provides some examples of activities that cannot be funded by grant money:

- general leadership or administrative staffing costs
- projects that will devolve grants to other bodies
- activities for which the applicant has already received funding from the Australian Government (including from a previous round of the Regional and Small Publishers Innovation Fund)
- costs related to preparing the grant application, preparing any project reports (except costs of independent audit reports) and preparing any project variation requests
- costs of purchasing, leasing, depreciation or development of land
- building acquisition or modification
- financial costs, including interest
- costs related to obtaining resources used on the project, including job advertising and recruiting and contract negotiations
- site preparation activities which are not directly related to public interest journalism

- routine operational expenses that are not directly related to the production of public interest journalism including communications, accommodation, office computing facilities, printing, stationery, postage, legal and accounting fees and bank charges
- activities paid for using cash/in-kind consideration
- activities involving the acquisition of other businesses by the applicant.

6. How to apply

Before applying, you must read and understand these guidelines and sample grant agreement.

These documents may be found at GrantConnect. Any alterations and addenda² will be published on GrantConnect and by registering on this website you will be automatically notified of any changes. GrantConnect is the authoritative source for grants information.

To apply you must:

- complete the online Grant Opportunity application form on GrantConnect
- provide all the information requested
- meet all eligibility criteria
- include all necessary attachments
- submit your application to us by 5 pm, 29 May 2020.

You are responsible for ensuring that your application is complete and accurate. Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995 and we will investigate any false or misleading information and may exclude your application from further consideration.

If you find an error in your application after submitting it, you should contact us immediately either by email (PingProgram@communications.gov.au) or by phone (02 6271 1142). We do not have to accept any additional information, nor requests from you to correct your application after the closing time.

You cannot change your application after the closing date and time.

If we find an error or information that is missing, we may ask for clarification or additional information from you that will not change the nature of your application.

You should keep a copy of your application and any supporting documents.

We will acknowledge that we have received your application within one business day.

If you need further guidance around the application process or if you are unable to submit an application online contact us either by email (PingProgram@communications.gov.au) or by phone (02 6271 1142).

² Alterations and addenda include but are not limited to: corrections to currently published documents, changes to close times for applications, Questions and Answers (Q&A) documents and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) documents

6.1 Revenue disclosure

Applicants will be required to disclose their revenue for financial year 2018-19.

Applicants that also operate in non-regional markets will be required to disaggregate revenue into regional, non-regional and shared services. Only regional revenue will be considered.

Important: The revenue must be derived from broad publishing or broadcast activities that includes the production and distribution of public interest journalism. The revenue figure provided cannot include revenue derived from other business activities not related to the stream. For example, a hypothetical television broadcaster eligible for funding under funding stream 1 cannot include revenue derived from non-television related activities.

If an applicant is unable to specifically disaggregate revenue by either television, radio or publishing sectors (depending which stream they are applying for), then the applicant must estimate the amount of revenue directly derived from the sector for which they are seeking financial assistance. In this case, applicants must provide a reasonable explanation for how they have apportioned their revenue to the particular sector relevant to the stream for which they are applying.

Applicants can apply for funding under multiple streams, however, they will be required to disaggregate revenue by platform.

6.2 Attachments to the application

The following documents may be included with your application:

- a chart that shows the applicant's corporate structure, including subsidiary and parent companies
- for applicants that are ASX listed, a copy of documents submitted to the ASX listing up-to-date shareholding and voting interests
- for applicants that are not ASX listed, a copy of a current ASIC company extract
- a document describing in detail the public interest journalism activity of the applicant including sample articles, or transcripts of broadcasts and information on how the grant funding will be used to meet the objectives of the program set out in section 2, including to maintain their production and distribution of public interest journalism in regional Australia during the grant period
- details of the regional areas where services are provided, which includes public interest journalism activities
- the total expenditure on the production and distribution of public interest journalism for the 2018-19 financial year
- the total labour costs directly associated with the production of regional journalism for the reporting period in the financial year 2018-19
- statistics of the number of journalists employed by the organisation, including a breakdown by geographic spread, average salary and employment type (full-time, part-time, casual and freelance). This should not include personal information (as defined in the Privacy Act 1988).

- An audited financial statement (e.g. a profit and loss statement) certified by the Chief Financial Officer or registered Chartered Accountant indicating that your organisation is currently solvent.
- a statement is given in the form of a statutory declaration under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Cth) from the Chief Financial Officer, or registered Chartered Accountant, indicating that the revenue derived from relevant publication or broadcast activities is true and accurate.

You must attach supporting documentation to the application form in line with the instructions provided within the form. You should only attach requested documents.

The revenue information must be certified either by the Chief Financial Officer, or by a registered Chartered Accountant.

6.3 Timing of grant opportunity

The application period for the Grant Opportunity will open on 7 May 2020 and will close at 5pm AEST on 29 May 2020.

You must submit an application between the published opening and closing dates.

Late applications will generally not be accepted.

Requests for an extension of time to lodge an application must include reasons for the request and be made in writing to us at PingProgram@communications.gov.au prior to the closing date. Requests for an extension received on the closing date will not be accepted.

Table 1: Expected timing for this grant opportunity

Activity	Timeframe
Determining of eligibility	2 weeks
Approval of outcomes of selection process	2 weeks
Negotiations and award of grant agreements	2-3 weeks
Notification to unsuccessful applicants	2 weeks
Earliest start date of grant activity	June 2020
End date of grant activity or agreement	12 months after execution of grant agreement

6.4 Questions during the application process

For any questions during the application period, please email PingProgram@communications.gov.au. We will endeavour to respond to emailed questions within two business days. If the matter is urgent, please contact us by phone on 02 6271 1142.

7. The grant selection process

Your application will be considered through a demand driven grant process.

We will check your application to ensure it meets the eligibility criteria.

Your application will be assessed for eligibility by an assessment panel consisting of officials from the Department.

If the selection process identifies unintentional errors in your application, you may be contacted to correct or explain the information.

Applicants may also be required to participate in a financial viability assessment during the assessment process.

We will provide a report to the decision maker (the Minister for Communications, Cyber Safety and the Arts) on the eligible applications and recommended grant funding amounts. We also provide data outlining the geographic spread of successful applicants in each stream.

7.1.1 Who will approve grants?

The Minister for Communications, Cyber Safety and the Arts (the decision maker) decides which grants to approve taking into account the availability of grant funds for the purposes of the grant program.

The decision maker's decision is final in all matters, including:

- the approval of the grant
- the grant amount to be awarded
- the terms and conditions of the grant.

There is no appeal mechanism for decisions to approve or not approve a grant.

8. Notification of application outcomes

We will advise you of the outcome of your application in writing. If you are successful, we will advise you of any specific conditions attached to the grant.

9. Successful grant applications

9.1 The grant agreement

You must enter into a legally binding grant agreement with the Commonwealth.

We use the simple grant agreement in this program.

Each agreement has standard terms and conditions that cannot be changed. Sample grant agreements are available on GrantConnect.

Grantees will be required to maintain existing levels of journalism production and distribution during the grant period.

You should not make financial commitments until a grant agreement has been executed by the Commonwealth.

Your grant agreement may have specific conditions determined by the eligibility process or other considerations made by the decision maker. We will identify these in the agreement. We are committed to achieving value-for-money outcomes while reducing red tape for grantees, so it applies a risk-based approach to managing grant agreements.

The Commonwealth may recover grant funds if there is a breach of the grant agreement.

9.2 How we pay the grant

The grant agreement will specify the total grant amount to be paid for each successful application. The grant agreement will also specify the GST component of goods and services purchased using grant funding that will be paid.

We will not exceed the maximum grant amount under any circumstances.

Grantees will be paid their grant allocation in two instalments upon the following milestones being met:

- First payment (90% of the final grant allocation): upon execution of the grant agreement
- Second payment (10% of the final grant allocation): following acceptance by the Department of a six monthly Interim Report.

The payment instalments reflect the immediate financial support required by broadcasters and publishers to maintain the provision of public interest journalism during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Department will have the discretion to change the instalment percentages when negotiating the funding agreement with the grantee.

We will pay each instalment of the final grant allocation within 10 business days of the milestone being met by the grantee.

9.3 Grant Payments and GST

Grants are assessable income for taxation purposes, unless exempted by a taxation law. We recommend you seek independent professional advice on your taxation obligations or seek assistance from the Australian Taxation Office.³ We do not provide advice on your particular taxation circumstances.

10. Announcement of grants

If successful, your grant will be listed on the GrantConnect website within 21 days after the date of effect⁴ as required by section 5.3 of the CGRGs.

Successful grants may also be announced by the Department or the Government at other times.

³ <https://www.ato.gov.au/>

⁴ See glossary

11. How we monitor your grant activity

11.1 Keeping us informed

We need to know of any key changes to an organisation or its business activities, particularly if they affect a grantee's ability to complete the project that is the subject of the grant, carry on the business or pay debts due.

Grantees must also inform us of any changes to their:

- name
- address
- nominated contact details
- bank account details

Grantees must notify us as soon as they become aware of any likely delays to a project or milestone.

Grantees must immediately contact us as soon as they become aware of a breach of the terms and conditions under the grant agreement. This will include a reduction of the production of journalism or the number of journalists engaged.

11.2 Reporting

Grantees must submit reports in line with the terms and conditions in their grant agreements.

Grantees will be required to provide an interim report prior to receiving their second instalment payment (see Section 9.2). A reporting template will be provided. The interim report will need to include:

- a detailed breakdown of the expenditure of the first grant payment
- the total expenditure on public interest journalism related activities for the reporting period
- the total labour costs directly associated with the production of regional journalism for the reporting period
- an update on the data provided in the grant application
- a written statement on how the grant is contributing to the objective and outcomes of the Program (see Section 2)
- a written statement on the impact of the grant on the operations of the Grantee's business.

Grantees will also be required to provide a final report 12 months after the execution of the funding agreement. The final report will need to include updated details provided in the interim report and a final acquittal of grant funding. Acquitting a grant means reporting accurately on the expenditure of grant funding, the activities that were funded and the outcomes achieved in relation to the objective of the Program (see section 2).

We will monitor progress of project activities by assessing reports lodged by grantees and may conduct site visits to confirm details in reports, if necessary. Occasionally, we may need to re-examine claims, seek further information or request an independent audit of claims and payments.

We assess ongoing risks by monitoring evidence provided by grantees during the term of an agreement.

The Department will have the discretion to change the type of report and frequency dependent on the size of the grant. Any such changes will be made clear in the funding agreement. Consideration may be given to grants with a lower value and lower commensurate risk to have fewer reporting obligations than larger projects of greater value.

11.3 Evaluation

We will evaluate the grant program to measure how well the outcomes and objectives have been achieved. We may use information from your application and reports for this purpose. We may also interview you, or ask you for more information to help us understand how the grant impacted you and to evaluate how effective the program was in achieving its outcomes.

We may contact you up to one year after you finish your grant for more information to assist with this evaluation.

12. Probity

The Australian Government will make sure that the grant opportunity process is fair, according to the published guidelines, incorporates appropriate safeguards against fraud, unlawful activities and other inappropriate conduct and is consistent with the CGRGs.

These guidelines may be changed from time-to-time by the Department. When this happens the revised guidelines will be published on GrantConnect.

12.1 Enquiries and feedback

The Department's feedback and complaints process apply to complaints about this Grant Opportunity. All complaints about a grant process must be provided in writing to the Director, Governance Section.

By email: clientservice@infrastructure.gov.au

By mail: Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Communications
GPO Box 594
CANBERRA ACT 2601

Alternatively, you can fill out the online form on the Department's website.

If you do not agree with the way we handled your complaint, you may complain to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. The Ombudsman will usually not consider a complaint unless the matter has first been raised directly with us.

Contact details for the Commonwealth Ombudsman are:

Phone (Toll free): 1300 362 072
Email: ombudsman@ombudsman.gov.au

Any questions you have about grant decisions for this grant opportunity should be sent to PingProgram@communications.gov.au.

12.2 Conflicts of interest

Any conflicts of interest could affect the performance of the grant opportunity or program. There may be a conflict of interest, or perceived conflict of interest, if the Department's staff, any member of a committee or advisor and/or you or any of your personnel:

- has a professional, commercial or personal relationship with a party who is able to influence the application selection process, such as an Australian Government officer
- has a relationship with or interest in, an organisation, which is likely to interfere with or restrict the applicants from carrying out the proposed activities fairly and independently or
- has a relationship with, or interest in, an organisation from which they will receive personal gain because the organisation receives a grant under the grant program/grant opportunity.

You will be asked to declare, as part of your application, any perceived or existing conflicts of interests or that, to the best of your knowledge, there is no conflict of interest.

If you later identify an actual, apparent, or perceived conflict of interest, you must inform the Department in writing immediately.

Conflicts of interest for Australian Government staff will be handled as set out in the Australian Public Service Code of Conduct \(Section 13 \(7\)\) of the Public Service Act 1999. Committee members and other officials including the decision maker must also declare any conflicts of interest.

12.3 Privacy

We treat your personal information according to the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles. This includes letting you know:

- what personal information we collect
- why we collect your personal information
- who we give your personal information to.

Your personal information can only be disclosed to someone for the primary purpose for which it was collected, unless an exemption applies.

The Australian Government may also use and disclose information about grant applicants and grant recipients under this grant opportunity in any other Australian Government business or function. This includes disclosing grant information on GrantConnect as required for reporting purposes and giving information to the Australian Taxation Office for compliance purposes.

We may share the information you give us with other Commonwealth entities for purposes including government administration, research or service delivery, according to Australian laws.

As part of your application, you declare your ability to comply with the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles and impose the same privacy obligations on officers, employees, agents and subcontractors that you engage to assist with the activity, in respect of personal information you collect, use, store, or disclose in connection with the activity. Accordingly, you must not do anything, which if done by the [relevant Commonwealth entity] would breach an Australian Privacy Principle as defined in the Act.

12.4 Confidential Information

Other than information available in the public domain, you agree not to disclose to any person, other than us, any confidential information relating to the grant application and/or agreement, without prior written approval. The obligation will not be breached where you are required by law, Parliament or a stock exchange to disclose the relevant information or where the relevant information is publicly available (other than through breach of a confidentiality or non-disclosure obligation).

We may at any time, require you to arrange for you; or your employees, agents or subcontractors to give a written undertaking relating to nondisclosure of our confidential information in a form we consider acceptable.

We will keep any information in connection with the grant agreement confidential to the extent that it meets all the three conditions below:

1. you clearly identify the information as confidential and explain why we should treat it as confidential
2. the information is commercially sensitive
3. revealing the information would cause unreasonable harm to you or someone else.

We will not be in breach of any confidentiality agreement if the information is disclosed to:

- the [committee] and other Commonwealth employees and contractors to help us manage the program effectively
- employees and contractors of our department so we can research, assess, monitor and analyse our programs and activities
- employees and contractors of other Commonwealth agencies for any purposes, including government administration, research or service delivery
- other Commonwealth, State, Territory or local government agencies in program reports and consultations
- the Auditor-General, Ombudsman or Privacy Commissioner
- the responsible Minister or Parliamentary Secretary
- a House or a Committee of the Australian Parliament.

The grant agreement may also include any specific requirements about special categories of information collected, created or held under the grant agreement.

12.5 Freedom of information

All documents in the possession of the Australian Government, including those about this grant opportunity, are subject to the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

The purpose of the FOI Act is to give members of the public rights of access to information held by the Australian Government and its entities. Under the FOI Act, members of the public can seek access to documents held by the Australian Government. This right of access is limited only by the exceptions and exemptions necessary to protect essential public interests and private and business affairs of persons in respect of whom the information relates.

All Freedom of Information requests must be referred to the Freedom of Information Coordinator in writing.
